

THE SULTAN PUBLIC HOUSE:
MEETING WITH THE COMMUNITY

It is now a condition of The Sultan's Premises Licence that it holds quarterly meetings with the community to discuss any matters arising from the use of the benches by the side of the pub, replacing some car parking spaces. This sets out the dates of the next four meetings and how it is intended that each meeting will be conducted.

The dates for the next meetings are as follows:

Wednesday 28th June 2023 at 6pm

Friday 6th October 2023 at 7.30pm

Wednesday 3^d January 2024 at 7.30pm

Wednesday 1st May 2024 at 7.30pm

Tuesday 3^d September 2024 at 6pm

The meetings will be held at The Sultan as we have no other meeting places in the vicinity.

All those attending will have to fill in their name and address on the form provided before entering the meeting.

Everyone is asked to be respectful of each other and not to talk over one another, however much you may disagree, or agree with what is being said.

Directions from the chair are to be followed and the chair reserves the right to ask anyone to leave who refuses to accept any reasonable direction, uses inappropriate language or behaves in any other way which could cause the meeting to become unmanageable.

If no one has arrived at the meeting within 10 minutes of its commencement unless someone has advised that they wish to attend and will be late, the meeting will come to an end.

In exceptional circumstances, should it be necessary to cancel a meeting, this will be advertised on the Sultan's Facebook page and outside of the pub.
